Strategic Property Advisory Services

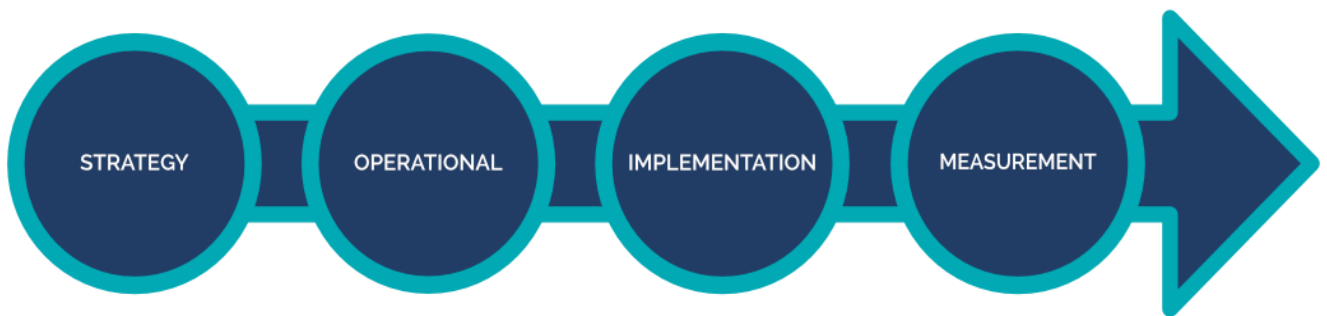

Access to the right strategic advice critically affects the future value of your property portfolio and access to the right answers can be a challenge.

TPG is your trusted adviser when it comes to sourcing the right balance of information to make decisions that impact and affect your organisation. We understand property owners want and need a commercial edge when it comes to the strategic triggers that drive your decision making processes.

TPG recognises that a bespoke approach needs to be as unique as your needs are. We offer a modular suite of services and advice options, based on your specific requirements and budget.

Our customized Four Pillars approach is your turn-key solution to a meaningful strategic plan for your property portfolio. The flexibility of our Four Pillars strategy offer means you have the option to select the various aspects as needed. It's not a 'one size fits all' approach.

TPG Four Pillars:

Our Four Pillars approach means that your portfolio when assessed and reviewed is:

- ◆ Fully supported by a well-structured and comprehensive strategic approach.
- ◆ Operationally well managed.
- ◆ Performing at optimum levels.
- ◆ Exceeding your return-on-investment expectations.
- ◆ Fully compliant to legislative requirements.

We know how and why the right property asset management strategy will allow you to make those important decisions.

Our demonstrated track record and industry knowledge will provide you with the tools to make:

- ◆ Informed decisions that cover all contingencies;
- ◆ Decisions that maximise outcomes by placing you in a stronger strategic position to capitalize on the ownership, management and highest and best use of land and property assets.

TPG provides your organisation with a model that is structured, effective, strategic, operational, implementable and measurable, leaving nothing to chance.
